Are You

* New to Cross Dressing?

* Inexperienced at dressing realistically?

* Looking for a change of image?

* Wanting professional help and advice?

* Needing confidence building before venturing out in public?

Then this is the free service for you!

Here at Transformation we are sensitive to the fact that some of our customers simply don't know "where to start" when it comes to dressing.

We have a simple answer and it's completely free! Simply visit one of our Transformation Shops and let a mature image consultant gently guide you, and show you everything you will need. In the privacy of our changing rooms she will select for you all the products to magically mould your feminine hourglass curves. It will exceed all expectations.

Because we passionately believe all cross dressers should have the opportunity to visualise their feminine potential and enjoy the sensation of wearing silicone breasts and foundation garments we are offering this service FREE OF CHARGE. This discreet facility which takes about 30 minutes is available at your nearest Transformation shop and you do not need to book an appointment. Simply walk in and ask - this is a wonderful opportunity to see that woman of your dreams - YOU!

"Transformation, thank you for a wonderful experience, to feel truly feminine was a big boost for my self esteem. I enjoyed my day immensely. There is something really nice about being feminine and I have embarked on my journey to achieving the ultimate in grace, beauty, gentleness and of course perfection."
